Approved For Release 200	CRETE 25X1 / 25X
OUTERY Germany (Soviet Zone)	REPORT NO. 25
Doeberitz Airfield	A V
VALUATION See below PLACE	E OBTAINED 25
ATE OF CONTENT 19 and 26 March	1951
(1 ATE OBTAINED_	ATE PREPARED 16 April 1951
EFERENCES
AGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE	Ε)
EMARKS
) NOT CIRCULATE
	25X1
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had	rn edge of Doeberitz (N 53/Z 65) air- their engines and cockpits covered with
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows or	their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. seven planes. About 35 IL-10sembosite each other on the southern edge
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were	their edge of Doeberitz (N 53/Z 65) air- their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. seven planes. About 35 IL-10s poposite each other on the southern edge
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows of the field. 2. There was no flying becau which came from the south maintenance work on aircr.	sern edge of Doeberitz (N 53/Z 65) air— their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. seven planes. About 35 IL-10s posite each other on the southern edge 25) ase of occasional rain and a strong wind west. A detail of soldiers were doing aft parked on the northern edge of the art. The radio installation with four
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows of the field. 2. There was no flying becau which came from the south maintenance work on aircrafield about 150 meters appears was still west of the southern edges of the air southern edges of the air.	sern edge of Doeberitz (N 53/Z 65) air— their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. seven planes. About 35 IL-10s posite each other on the southern edge 25) ase of occasional rain and a strong wind west. A detail of soldiers were doing aft parked on the northern edge of the art. The radio installation with four he field.  10s were parked on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation.
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows of the field. 2. There was no flying becau which came from the south maintenance work on aircrafield about 150 meters appears was still west of the southern edges of the air between 9:30 and 10 a.m. The weather was clear but * Comment. The type, served indicate that the attack regiments. Accord	their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. Seven planes. About 35 IL-10s prosite each other on the southern edge 25) ase of occasional rain and a strong wind west. A detail of soldiers were doing aft parked on the northern edge of the art. The radio installation with four he field.  10s were parked on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation. became cloudy. 25 26 27 28 28 29 29 29 20 20 20 20 20 20 20
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows of the field. 2. There was no flying becau which came from the south maintenance work on aircr field about 150 meters apmasts was still west of the southern edges of the air between 9:30 and 10 a.m. The weather was clear but *	their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. Seven planes. About 35 IL-10s posite each other on the southern edge 25 posite each other on the southern edge 25 posite parked on the northern edge of the art. The radio installation with four he field.  10s were parked on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation. became cloudy. 25 positive each other on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation. became cloudy. 26 positive each other on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation. became cloudy.
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows of the field. 2. There was no flying becau which came from the south maintenance work on aircr field about 150 meters appears was still west of the southern edges of the air between 9:30 and 10 a.m. The weather was clear but *	response of Doeberitz (N 53/Z 65) air— their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. Seven planes. About 35 IL-10s prosite each other on the southern edge assembly aft parked on the northern edge of the art. The radio installation with four he field.  10s were parked on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation. became cloudy. Cob- airfield is still occupied by two ground ing to previous reports, the field is out 100 IL-10s. ion of the ratio installation, an Adcock ed. 25
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows of the field. 2. There was no flying becau which came from the south maintenance work on aircr field about 150 meters appears was still west of the southern edges of the air between 9:30 and 10 a.m. The weather was clear but *	rn edge of Doeberitz (N 53/Z 65) air- their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. seven planes. About 35 IL-10s poposite each other on the southern edge assembly about 35 IL-10s poposite each other on the southern edge assembly assembly. Seven planes. About 35 IL-10s poposite each other on the southern edge assembly assembly assembly. Seven planes. About 35 IL-10s poposite each other on the southern edge aft parked on the northern edge of the art. The radio installation with four he field.  10s were parked on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation. became cloudy. Decument No. No Change in Class. Decument No. No Change in Class.
were parked on the northe field. The aircraft had tarpaulins. Red stripes rudder assemblies, lages. and red stars were were parked in two rows of the field. 2. There was no flying becau which came from the south maintenance work on aircrafield about 150 meters appears was still west of the southern edges of the air between 9:30 and 10 a.m. The weather was clear but * Comment. The type, served indicate that the attack regiments. Accord occupied by a total of about DF, was previously report.	response of Doeberitz (N 53/Z 65) air— their engines and cockpits covered with were seen on the leading edges of their on both the fuselage and rudder assembly. Seven planes. About 35 IL-10s prosite each other on the southern edge assembly aft parked on the northern edge of the art. The radio installation with four he field.  10s were parked on the northern and field. * All the aircraft took off and headed north flying in formation. became cloudy. Decument No. Decument No. Decument No. Decument No. 25 Decument No. 25 Decument No. 26 26 27 Decument No. Decument No. 27 Decument No. 28 29 Decument No. 29 Decument No. 29 Decument No. 29 Decument No.